

REOI

REQUEST for EXPRESSIONS of INTEREST

WHO ARE WE?

The International Agency for Research on Cancer (IARC) is first and foremost a research organization, providing new knowledge to reduce the global burden of cancer. In addition, as part of the World Health Organization (WHO) and the wider United Nations (UN) family, IARC has unparalleled opportunities to encourage cooperation and provide leadership among the international cancer community. Through the generosity and vision of its Governing Council, IARC has a global mandate, permitting a focus on low- and middle-income countries where resources are most needed and cancer remains an often-neglected disease. IARC assists Participating States to meet their development needs through research on cancer.

For more than 50 years, the Agency has been making important contributions to the global fight against cancer, notably through its capacity to bring together people and organizations from across the world that share common values and objectives. More detailed information about IARC can be found at <https://www.iarc.fr/>

“ In 2018, cancer was responsible for 9.6 million deaths. By 2040, this number is predicted to rise to 16.4 million. ”

Dr Elisabete Weiderpass
IARC Director

WHAT DO WE DO?

- A CATALYST FOR INTERNATIONAL CANCER RESEARCH
- FOCUSING ON LOW- AND MIDDLE-INCOME COUNTRIES
- PRODUCING THE EVIDENCE BASE FOR PREVENTION
- ADVANCING CANCER RESEARCH THROUGH THE NOUVEAU CENTRE PROJECT

WHAT IS THE NOUVEAU CENTRE?

IARC is currently undergoing a period of transformation that is likely to position it as the world leader in cancer research. The move in 2022 to the new IARC headquarters building, known as the Nouveau Centre, will mark a decisive turning point for the Agency. The emphasis is on the principle of open science and true collaboration, providing IARC with the means to achieve its goal of reducing the burden of and suffering from cancer, now and for future generations.

WE NEED YOU!

IARC invites partners to submit an expression of interest (EoI) to collaborate for in-kind donation of equipment to IARC as part of the Nouveau Centre project.

WHAT DO WE NEED?

BATCH 1

Audio, video, and IT equipment

BATCH 2

Laboratory equipment

BATCH 3

Office, conference, and meeting room furniture

HOW TO SUBMIT

To access the tender documents, it is mandatory that your company is registered in the UN Global Marketplace (UNGM).

YOU CANNOT SUBMIT an EoI in the following cases:

1

Any association or relationship with the tobacco or alcohol industry

2

Any association or relationship with the arms industry

3

You have or have had recourse to child labour

4

You are or have been involved in acts of corruption or terrorism

- i) The Contractor agrees that breach of these provisions is a breach of an essential term of the Contract.
- ii) These provisions include the UN's blacklist of debarred or suspended suppliers.
- iii) IARC reserves the right to refuse an offer made by a company that does not meet its criteria.

WHOM TO CONTACT

CLEMENT CHAUVET

Strategic Engagement and Resource Mobilization Officer
Office of the Director

+33 666 95 73 25

chauvetc@iarc.fr

BECOME A PARTNER OF A UNITED NATIONS AGENCY

Help us in the fight against the burden of cancer

International Agency for Research on Cancer

Photo credit: IARC/Demathieu Bard