

Cervical cancer can be prevented

Vaccination against high-risk human papillomavirus (HPV) types, which cause almost all cases of cervical cancer, is safe, efficacious, and critical in the fight against cervical cancer.

Cervical Cancer Awareness Month